Define psychrometrics and plot on a psychrometric chart, describe how humidity affects equipment pressures and temperatures, describe the effects of various conditions on the evaporator and condenser, diagnose refrigerant, mechanical, and electrical problems, describe a reverse cycle heat pump refrigerant system, test the function of various heat pump defrost systems, acquire the EPA 608 Universal certification, pass the HVAC Industry Competency Exam (ICE)

Tests

It is the student's responsibility to make-up or reschedule a missed grade the day they return to class. If the student fails to make-up or reschedule with the instructor within a week, they will receive a grade of 0%.

Topics of Study

The following topics will be studied and discussed in detail, although the order of presentation may not exactly follow the attached listing. The instructor may introduce additional materials.

Chapter 40: Heat Pumps

Chapter 3: Service Calls

Chapter 23: Refrigerant Flow Components

Labs

Lab work is a key element to having a working knowledge of the materials being presented in this course. Students must demonstrate adequate skills and procedures to be given a passing grade. Labs will be assigned based on equipment and space availability. Labs are assigned with an objective and deadline. While some labs are practiced in groups, lab grades are based on an individual's achievement.

Safety

Proper personal protective equipment (PPE) must be worn, and tools must be used safely in the lab rooms. Students must wear closed-toe shoes. Because labs materials that can stain clothes and labs will be conducted outside in warm or cold weather, students should dress appropriately, maintain proper hygiene, and keep a change of clothes. Students are required to have a complete HVAC tool kit with them for every class. The tool kit is listed on D2L. If a student doesn't have the required tools to complete a lab, they may receive a punitive grade. The test policy rules listed above apply for labs. Any student creating an unsafe lab environment or disturbing other students will be asked to leave.

GENERAL EDUCATION OUTCOMES:

This course fulfills the following General Education Outcomes through the EPA Section 608 Type II Technician Certification. Upon completion of this course, students will be able to:

 Students who do not pass EPA 608 Core and Type II will receive a final grade of "I" (Incomplete) for the ACR-210, which will prevent completion of the Residential HVAC Certificate from HGTC. The grade will be changed from "I" to "F" at the end of the summer semester unless proof of EPA 608 Type II certification is submitted by email to your instructor.

GRADING SYSTEM:

The College adheres to a 10 point grading scale A = 100 – 90, B = 89- 80, C = 79 – 70, D = 69 – 60, F = 59 and below.

Grades earned in courses impact academic progression and financial aid status. Before withdrawing from a course, be sure to talk with your instructor and financial aid counselor about the implications of that course of action. Ds, Fs, Ws, WFs and Is also negatively impact academic progression and financial aid status.

The Add/Drop Period is the first 5 days of the semester for full term classes. Add/Drop periods are shorter for accelerated format courses. Please refer to the academic calendar for deadlines for add/drop. You must attend at least one meeting of all of your classes during that period. If you do not, you will be dropped from the course(s) and your Financial Aid will be reduced accordingly.
