Part II: Student Learning OutcomesCOURSE LEARNING OUTCOMES and ASSESSMENTS*:

The student must obtain employment in a profit or non-profit business or agency that is approved by the instructor.

It should be noted that the following competencies and or skills will not necessarily apply to every student involved in this course. These skills represent a sampling of the activities that a student / employee may be involved in on a daily basis, and will vary with the time limitations, the specific business environment, and the needs of the employer.

1. Provide excellent customer service skills.
2. Maintain records management.
3. Show respect for the organization.
4. Use proper business etiquette in interactions within the organization.
5. Demonstrate effective written and oral communications.
6. Dress appropriately for the specific business environment.
7. Utilize interpersonal skills appropriate for the specific work environment.
8. Effectively use information systems and software applicable to the organization.
9. Demonstrate punctuality in the workplace.
10. Utilized branch accounting skills.
11. Demonstrate document production and formatting skills.
12. Demonstrate organizational skills, maintenance of records and general office duties assigned.

Each student is required to work 180 hours during the semester to satisfy the time requirements for this course. Students are required to notify the instructor of the job location, company or agency name, supervisor, and supervisor's mailing address and telephone number upon the semester commencement.

The instructor will make periodic site visits every other week during the semester coordinating with the student and/or supervisor in advance of an evaluation visit. The instructor should be notified immediately if the student's employment status changes. To reasonably accommodate the client company phone updates may be conducted as appropriate.

A typed or computer-generated report will be turned in at the end of the semester. This report will include the following sections:

1. Introduction - Includes a description of the business, their major objectives, the organization's history.
2. A daily log of tasks performed, operation of specific equipment and/or informational systems, technology, and techniques used to accomplish daily objectives. Include how you used the skills obtained during your academic career.
3. Include a discussion of any specific organizational or task related problems encountered and possible solutions in a constructive manner.
4. Summarize and evaluate your work experience with possible means of improvement for any ineffective practice(s) noted.

EMPLOYER AND STUDENT SELF EVALUATION: Each Employment Supervisor will be given an evaluation sheet directly from the Course Instructor to be completed on each student and returned directly to the Course Instructor.

*Students – please refer to the Instructor’s Course Information sheet for specific information on assessments and due dates.

Part III: Grading and Assessment

EVALUATION OF REQUIRED COURSE MEASURES/ARTIFACTS*:

Students’ performance will be assessed and the weight associated with the various measures/artifacts are listed below.

EVALUATION*

SCWE semester grades will be based on the following breakdown:

- Instructor’s Visitation Evaluations 15%
- Supervisor’s Evaluation 35%
- Final Report 50%

100%

*Students, for the specific number and type of evaluations, please refer to the Instructor's Course Information Sheet.

GRADING SYSTEM:

The College and departmental grading system to a 10-point grading scale A = 100 – 90, B = 89- 80, C = 79 – 70, D = 69 – 60, F = 59 and below.

Grades earned in courses impact academic progression and financial aid status. Before withdrawing from a course, be sure to talk with your instructor and financial aid counselor about the implications of that course of action. Ds, Fs, Ws, WFs and Is also negatively impact academic progression and financial aid status.

The Add/Drop Period is the first 5 days of the semester for full term classes. Add/Drop periods are shorter for accelerated format courses. Please refer to the academic calendar for deadlines for add/drop. You must attend at least one meeting of all of your classes during that period. If you do not, you will be dropped from the course(s) and your Financial Aid will be reduced accordingly.

Part IV: Attendance

Horry-Georgetown Technical College maintains a general attendance policy requiring students to be present for a minimum of 80 percent (80%) of their classes in order to receive credit for any course. Due to the varied nature of courses taught at the college, some faculty may require up to 90 percent (90%) attendance. Pursuant to 34 Code of Federal Regulations 228.22 - Return to Title IV Funds, once a student has missed over 20% of the course or has missed two (2) consecutive weeks, the faculty is obligated to withdraw the student and a student may not be permitted to reenroll. Instructors define absentee limits for their class at the beginning of each term; please refer to the Instructor Course Information Sheet.

For online and hybrid courses, check your Instructor's Course Information Sheet for any required on-site meeting times. Please note, instructors may require tests to be taken at approved testing sites, and if you use a testing center other than those provided by HGTC, the center may charge a fee for its services.

Part V: Student Resources

THE STUDENT SUCCESS AND TUTORING CENTER (SSTC):

The SSTC offers to all students the following free resources:

1. Academic tutors for most subject areas, Writing Center support, and college success skills.
2. Online tutoring and academic support resources.
3. Professional and interpersonal communication coaching in the EPIC Labs.

All three HGTC campus libraries are equipped with computers to support academic research and related school work; printing is available as well. Visit the Library website for more information or call (843) 349-5268.

STUDENT TESTING:

Testing in an online/hybrid course and in make-up exam situations may be accomplished in a variety of ways:

- Test administered within D2L
- Test administered in writing on paper
- Test administered through Publisher Platforms (which may have a fee associated with the usage)

Furthermore, tests may have time limits and/or require a proctor.

Proctoring can be accomplished either face-to-face at an approved site or online through our online proctoring service. To find out more about proctoring services, please visit the Online Testing section of the HGTC's Testing Center webpage.

The Instructor Information Sheet will have more details on test requirements for your course.

DISABILITY SERVICES:

HGTC is committed to providing an accessible environment for students with disabilities. Inquiries may be directed to HGTC's Accessibility and Disability Service webpage. The Accessibility and Disability staff will review documentation of the student's disability and, in a confidential setting with the student, develop an educational accommodation plan.

Note: It is the student's responsibility to self-identify as needing accommodations and to provide acceptable documentation. After a student has self-identified and submitted documentation of a disability, accommodations may be determined, accepted, and provided.

STATEMENT OF EQUAL OPPORTUNITY/NON-DISCRIMINATION STATEMENT:

Horry-Georgetown Technical College prohibits discrimination and harassment, including sexual harassment and abuse, on the basis of race, color, sex, national or ethnic origin, age, religion, disability, marital or family status, veteran status, political ideas, sexual orientation, gender identity, or pregnancy, childbirth, or related medical conditions, including, but not limited to, lactation in educational programs and/or activities.

TITLE IX REQUIREMENTS:

All students (as well as other persons) at Horry-Georgetown Technical College are protected by Title IX—regardless of their sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, part- or full-time status, disability, race, or national origin—in all aspects of educational programs and activities. Any student, or other member of the college community, who believes that he/she is or has been a victim of sexual harassment or sexual violence may file a report with the college's Chief Student Services Officer, campus law enforcement, or with the college's Title IX Coordinator or designee.

*Faculty and Staff are required to report incidents to the Title IX Coordinators when involving students. The only HGTC employees exempt from mandatory reporting are licensed mental health professionals (only as part of their job description such as counseling services).

INQUIRIES REGARDING THE NON-DISCRIMINATION/TITLE IX POLICIES:

Student and prospective student inquiries concerning Section 504, Title II, Title VII, and Title IX and their application to the College or any student decision may be directed to the Vice President for Student Affairs.
