Part I: Course Information

Effective Term: Spring 2020

COURSE PREFIX: CPT114   COURSE TITLE: Computers and Programming

CONTACT HOURS: 5   CREDIT HOURS: 3

RATIONALE FOR THE COURSE:
This is an introductory course in computer programming logic that is designed to give the student the basic tools needed to solve complex programming problems on the computer. This course also examines the methods and procedures used in maintaining microcomputer systems. Topics include hardware and software installation, configuration, operations, and troubleshooting as well as fundamental skills required to assemble and maintain a functional computer system.

COURSE DESCRIPTION:
This course introduces computer concepts and programming. Topics include basic concepts of computer architecture, files, memory, and input/output devices. Programming is done in a modern high-level language.

PREREQUISITES/CO-REQUISITES:
Appropriate ENG/RDG scores
Pre-Requisite: Grade of C or higher in HS Algebra 1 or Geometry

Online/Hybrid courses require students to complete the DLi Online Student Orientation prior to completing an online course. The DLi Online Student Orientation can be found in WaveNet, under the My Student tab.

REQUIRED MATERIALS:
Netacad (Free) and will be enrolled into the course for the first half of the semester
Please visit the bookstore for the correct book for the second half of the semester.

Enter the semester, course prefix, number and section when prompted and you will be linked to the correct textbook.

ADDITIONAL REQUIREMENTS:
Internet Access for assignments completed outside of class
USB Drive
Python (files will be available in D2L)
Raptor (files will be available in D2L)

TECHNICAL REQUIREMENTS:
Access to Desire2Learn (D2L), HGTC's student portal for course materials.
WaveNet and D2L email access.
Web browser: Google Chrome, Mozilla FireFox or Microsoft Edge are preferred

CLASSROOM ETIQUETTE:
As a matter of courtesy to other students and your professor, please turn off cell phones and other communication/entertainment devices before class begins. If you are monitoring for an emergency, please notify your professor prior to class and switch cell phone ringers to vibrate.

Part II: Student Learning Outcomes

COURSE LEARNING OUTCOMES and ASSESSMENTS*:

- Identify hardware components of a PC
- Assemble a PC
- Partition a hard drive
- Install operating systems
- Manage a personal computer
- Maintain a personal computer
- Create a small peer-to-peer network (using simulation PacketTracer)
- Demonstrate the mastery of Sequence and Selection programming structures using Flowcharts and Python code.
- Use variables and parameters with programmer-defined methods linked to defined events in Python and a flowcharting program, such as Raptor or Draw.io.
- Identify common terminology used in Object-Oriented Programming.
- Use Sequence and Selection structures to solve programming problems in Python and a flowcharting program, such as Raptor or Draw.io.

Students – please refer to the Instructor's Course Information sheet for specific information on assessments and due dates.

Part III: Grading and Assessment

EVALUATION OF REQUIRED COURSE MEASURES/ARTIFACTS*
Students' performance will be assessed and the weight associated with the various measures/artifacts are listed below.

EVALUATION*
Quizzes & Chapter Exams	25%
Study Guides/Program Assignments	25%
Packet Tracer Labs	10%
Mid-Term Exam	20%
Final Exam	20%
	100%

NOTE: The final exam cannot be exempted. If you do not take any part of the final exam, you will receive a zero (0). You must also take the final at the pre-set time for your course as outlined by the HGTC Administration. There are no make-up exams for the final.

*Students, for the specific number and type of evaluations, please refer to the Instructor's Course Information Sheet.

GRADING SYSTEM:
State the College's or departmental grading system as delineated in the Catalog. Please note the College adheres to a 10 point grading scale A = 100 – 90, B = 89- 80, C = 79 – 70, D = 69 – 60, F = 59 and below. You must have your Dean's approval if changes in the scale are made.

Grades earned in courses impact academic progression and financial aid status. Before withdrawing from a course, be sure to talk with your instructor and financial aid counselor about the implications of that course of action. Ds, Fs, Ws, WFs and Is also negatively impact academic progression and financial aid status.

The Add/Drop Period is the first 5 days of the semester for full term classes. Add/Drop periods are shorter for accelerated format courses. Please refer to the academic calendar for deadlines for add/drop (ACADEMIC CALENDAR).   You must attend at least one meeting of all of your classes during that period. If you do not, you will be dropped from the course(s) and your Financial Aid will be reduced accordingly.

Part IV: Attendance

Horry-Georgetown Technical College maintains a general attendance policy requiring students to be present for a minimum of 80 percent (80%) of their classes in order to receive credit for any course. Due to the varied nature of courses taught at the college, some faculty may require up to 90 percent (90%) attendance. Pursuant to 34 Code of Federal Regulations 228.22 - Return to Title IV Funds, once a student has missed over 20% of the course or has missed two (2) consecutive weeks, the faculty is obligated to withdraw the student and a student may not be permitted to reenroll. Instructors define absentee limits for their class at the beginning of each term; please refer to the Instructor Course Information Sheet.

For online and hybrid courses, check your Instructor's Course Information Sheet for any required on-site meeting times. Please note, instructors may require tests to be taken at approved testing sites, if you use a testing center other than those provided by HGTC, the center may charge a fee for its services.

Part V: Student Resources

The Student Success and Tutoring Center (SSTC)

The SSTC offers to all students the following free resources:
1. Academic coaches for most subject areas, Writing Center Support, and college success skills.
2. On-line student success and academic support resources.

Visit the SSTC website: Student Success & Tutoring Center and visit the student services tab in your WaveNet account to schedule appointments using TutorTrac. For more information, call: SSTC Conway, 349-7872; SSTC Grand Strand, 477-2113; and SSTC Georgetown, 520-1455 or go to the Online Resource Center to access on-demand resources any time.

TECH Central – Student Information Center

TECH Central provides quality enrollment and collegiate guidance for students, faculty, and staff. Services include phone, walk-in, and online technical support for technology training and troubleshooting. Additionally, we offer support in Office 365, Outlook E-mail setup, and ID cards.

Grand Strand Building 200, Room 136

Student Testing: (If course is offered in multiple format include this section, delete if only F2F sections are offered.)
Testing in an online/hybrid course may be accomplished in a variety of ways:
- Test administered within D2L
- Test administered in writing on paper
- Test administered through Publisher Platforms

Further more tests may have time limits and/or require a proctor.

Proctoring can be accomplished either face-to-face at an approved site or online through RPNow, our online proctoring service. To find out more about proctoring services, please visit the Online Testing section of the HGTC's Testing Center webpage.

The Instructor Information Sheet will have more details on test requirements for your course.

Disability Services:

HGTC is committed to providing an accessible environment for students with disabilities. Inquiries may be directed to Beth Havens, Director of Student Development on the Conway Campus Jaime Davis, Counselor/Advisor on the Georgetown Campus or Kristin Griffin, Counselor on the Grand Strand Campus. These individuals will review documentation of the student's disability and, in a confidential setting with the student, develop an educational accommodation plan.

Note: It is the student's responsibility to self-identify as needing accommodations and to provide acceptable documentation. After a student has self-identified and submitted documentation of a disability, accommodations may be determined, accepted, and provided.

Statement of Equal Opportunity/Non-Discrimination Statement
Horry-Georgetown Technical College prohibits discrimination and harassment, including sexual harassment and abuse, on the basis of race, color, sex, national or ethnic origin, age, religion, disability, marital or family status, veteran status, political ideas, sexual orientation, gender identity, or pregnancy, childbirth, or related medical conditions, including, but not limited to, lactation in educational programs and/or activities.

Inquiries regarding the non-discrimination policies: Students and prospective student inquiries concerning Section 504, Title II, and Title IX and their application to the College or any student decision may be directed to the Vice President for Student Affairs, Dr. Melissa Batten, VP Student Affairs, Title IX Coordinator, Building 1100, Room 107A, Conway Campus, PO Box 261966, Conway, SC 29528-6066, 843-349-5228, Melissa.Batten@hgtc.edu. Employee and applicant inquiries concerning Section 504, Title II, and Title IX and their application to the College may be directed to the Vice President for Human Resources, Jacquelyne Snyder, VP Human Resources, Section 504, Title II, and Title IX Coordinator, Building 200, Room 212A, Conway Campus, PO Box 261966, Conway, SC 29528-

6066, 843-349-5212, Jacquelyne.Snyder@hgtc.edu.

Title IX Requirements
All students (as well as other persons) at Horry-Georgetown Technical College are protected by Title IX—regardless of their sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, part- or full-time status, disability, race, or national origin—in all aspects of educational programs and activities. Any student, or other member of the college community, who believes that he/she is or has been a victim of sexual harassment or sexual violence may file a report with the college's Chief Student Services Officer, campus law enforcement, or with the college's Title IX Coordinator, or designee.

> *Faculty and Staff are required to report incidents to the Title IX Coordinators when involving students. The only HGTC employees exempt from mandatory reporting are licensed mental health professionals (only as part of their job description such as counseling services).

Inquiries regarding the non-discrimination policies:
Student and prospective student inquiries concerning Section 504, Title II, and Title IX and their application to the College or any student decision may be directed to the Vice President for Student Affairs.	Employee and applicant inquiries concerning Section 504, Title II, and Title IX and their application to the College may be directed to the Vice President for Human Resources.
