Part I: Course Information

Effective Term: 2018-2019

COURSE PREFIX: CUL 105

COURSE TITLE: Kitchen Fundamentals

CONTACT HOURS: 10

CREDIT HOURS: 3

RATIONALE FOR THE COURSE:

CUL 105 is a foundation-cooking course. The course is designed to begin the process of building sound technical cooking skills through hands on application and active participation of the student. The educational process is multi-tiered with both theoretical application and hands on activity. The desired goal is to develop an engaged classroom with students completing the technical cooking skills, projects, and written test material successfully while retaining the knowledge as they acquire new information throughout the progression of the program.

COURSE DESCRIPTION:

This course introduces students to the foundations of sanitation, basic measurements, equipment identification and basic costing.

The fundamental concepts, skills and techniques involved in basic cookery are covered in this course. Special emphasis is given to the study of ingredients, cooking theories, and the preparation of stocks, broths, glazes, soups, thickening agents, the grand sauces and emulsion sauces. Lectures and demonstrations teach organization skills in the kitchen, work coordination, and knife skills. The basics of vegetable cookery and starch cookery are covered.

GRADING SYSTEM:

Please note the College adheres to a 10 point grading scale A = 100 – 90, B = 89- 80, C = 79 – 70, D = 69 – 60, F = 59 and below.

Grades earned in courses impact academic progression and financial aid status. Before withdrawing from a course, be sure to talk with your instructor and financial aid counselor about the implications of that course of action. Ds, Fs, Ws, WFs and Is also negatively impact academic progression and financial aid status.

The Add/Drop Period is the first 5 days of the semester for full term classes. Add/Drop periods are shorter for accelerated format courses. Please refer to the academic calendar for deadlines for add/drop (ACADEMIC CALENDAR). You must attend at least one meeting of all of your classes during that period. If you do not, you will be dropped from the course(s) and your Financial Aid will be reduced accordingly.

Part IV: Attendance

Horry-Georgetown Technical College maintains a general attendance policy requiring students to be present for a minimum of eighty percent (80%) of his or her classes in order to be eligible to receive credit for any course. However, due to the varied nature of courses taught at the College, a more rigid attendance policy may be required by individual instructors. At a minimum, a student may be withdrawn from a course(s) after he or she has been absent in excess of ten percent (10%) of the total contact hours for a course. Instructors define absentee limits for their class at the beginning of each term; please refer to the Instructor Course Information Sheet.

For online and hybrid courses, check your Instructor's Course Information Sheet for any required on-site meeting times. Please note, instructors may require tests to be taken at approved testing sites, if you use a testing center other than those provided by HGTC, the center may charge a fee for its services.

Part V: Student Resources

The Student Success and Tutoring Center (SSTC)

The SSTC offers to all students the following free resources:
