Cultivation of desirable work habits is as important as developing solid cooking skills. Students should train themselves to be present and on time for all classes. Development of this important habit while in school makes it considerably easier to satisfy the employer who demands regular and punctual attendance when students become employed.

NETIQUETTE: is the term commonly used to refer to conventions adopted by Internet users on the web, mailing lists, public forums, and in live chat focused on online communications etiquette. For more information regarding Netiquette expectations for distance learning courses, please visit Online Netiquette.

Part II: Student Learning Outcomes

COURSE LEARNING OUTCOMES and ASSESSMENTS*:

Upon successful completion of this course, the student should be able to:

- Demonstrate operational effectiveness by implementing and maintaining proper A La Carte kitchen production and protocol
- Demonstrate planning, timing, and preparation of meal components, including soup, appetizer, entrée and desserts while emphasizing a commitment to quality and excellence
- Discuss, describe and demonstrate dining room service standards
- Identify, articulate and demonstrate effective communication and teamwork within each restaurant position that contributes to successful menu production and guest satisfaction
- Identify, articulate and demonstrate good communication between food production and service employees

As the student progresses through the curriculum, the chef/instructor will also evaluate the student's ability to execute secondary learning outcomes. The following outcomes will be addressed in current course, and are considered a critical element to the student's success:

- Mise en place
- Weights and Measures
- Knife Skills
- Basic culinary fundamentals

While Course Learning Outcomes are specific areas of importance, objectives define a broader set of goals. At the completion of this course the student should be able to:

- Be prepared for employment by maintaining a working atmosphere and professional environment.
- Define and use common kitchen terminology and vocabulary.
- Define and use proper methods and techniques when applying all basic fundamental standards of cooking.
- Define and apply safe standards of food preparation and sanitation while working in a food production environment.
- Define the fundamentals of an a la Carte kitchen.
- Convert recipes by changing yields and portion size.
- Develop positive guest relations by proper application of food and beverage service standards.
- Set up and prepare service areas of a restaurant
- Communicate with chef instructor and students in a professional manner.

Correct application of culinary skills, plate presentation, organization and timing in producing items off a fixed-price menu and an a la carte menu are stressed. The principles of dining room service are practiced and emphasized. Projects teach concepts that include menu planning, purchasing and forecasting.

*Students – please refer to the Instructor's Course Information sheet for specific information on assessments and due dates.

GRADING SYSTEM:

State the College's or departmental grading system as delineated in the Catalog. Please note the College adheres to a 10 point grading scale A = 100 – 90, B = 89- 80, C = 79 – 70, D = 69 – 60, F = 59 and below. You must have your Dean's approval if changes in the scale are made.

Grades earned in courses impact academic progression and financial aid status. Before withdrawing from a course, be sure to talk with your instructor and financial aid counselor about the implications of that course of action. Ds, Fs, Ws, WFs and Is also negatively impact academic progression and financial aid status.

The Add/Drop Period is the first 5 days of the semester for full term classes. Add/Drop periods are shorter for accelerated format courses. Please refer to the academic calendar for deadlines for add/drop. You must attend at least one meeting of all of your classes during that period. If you do not, you will be dropped from the course(s) and your Financial Aid will be reduced accordingly.

Part IV: Attendance

Horry-Georgetown Technical College maintains a general attendance policy requiring students to be present for a minimum of 80 percent (80%) of their classes in order to receive credit for any course. Due to the varied nature of courses taught at the college, some faculty may require up to 90 percent (90%) attendance. Pursuant to 34 Code of Federal Regulations 228.22 - Return to Title IV Funds, once a student has missed over 20% of the course or has missed two (2) consecutive weeks, the faculty is obligated to withdraw the student and a student may not be permitted to reenroll. Instructors define absentee limits for their class at the beginning of each term; please refer to the Instructor Course Information Sheet.

The culinary/baking and pastry arts laboratories are professionally focused, skill-oriented learning experiences. The daily exercises in each laboratory are unique and are not repeated. Each student must attend every class to maximize his or her educational opportunities. Excessive absence will result in withdrawal from the laboratory segment by the instructor. You will be withdrawn from the CUL 123 American Bistro Course with a W/WF if you have more than 1 (One) absence.

For online and hybrid courses, check your Instructor's Course Information Sheet for any required on-site meeting times. Please note, instructors may require tests to be taken at approved testing sites, and if you use a testing center other than those provided by HGTC, the center may charge a fee for its services.

DISABILITY SERVICES:

HGTC is committed to providing an accessible environment for students with disabilities. Inquiries may be directed to HGTC's Accessibility and Disability Service webpage. The Accessibility and Disability staff will review documentation of the student's disability and, in a confidential setting with the student, develop an educational accommodation plan.

Note: It is the student's responsibility to self-identify as needing accommodations and to provide acceptable documentation. After a student has self-identified and submitted documentation of a disability, accommodations may be determined, accepted, and provided.

STATEMENT OF EQUAL OPPORTUNITY/NON-DISCRIMINATION STATEMENT:

Horry-Georgetown Technical College prohibits discrimination and harassment, including sexual harassment and abuse, on the basis of race, color, sex, national or ethnic origin, age, religion, disability, marital or family status, veteran status, political ideas, sexual orientation, gender identity, or pregnancy, childbirth, or related medical conditions, including, but not limited to, lactation in educational programs and/or activities.

TITLE IX REQUIREMENTS:

All students (as well as other persons) at Horry-Georgetown Technical College are protected by Title IX—regardless of their sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, part- or full-time status, disability, race, or national origin—in all aspects of educational programs and activities. Any student, or other member of the college community, who believes that he/she is or has been a victim of sexual harassment or sexual violence may file a report with the college's Chief Student Services Officer, campus law enforcement, or with the college's Title IX Coordinator, or designee.

*Faculty and Staff are required to report incidents to the Title IX Coordinators when involving students. The only HGTC employees exempt from mandatory reporting are licensed mental health professionals (only as part of their job description such as counseling services).
