INSTRUCTIONAL PACKAGE

Part I: Course Information

Effective Term: 2019-2020

COURSE PREFIX: CUL 236

COURSE TITLE: Restaurant Capstone

CONTACT HOURS: 10

CREDIT HOURS: 3

RATIONALE FOR THE COURSE:

This course reinforces the knowledge and skill learned in the preceding classes and helps students build confidence in the techniques of basic cookery in a restaurant service setting. The development of communication, teamwork, customer service, and ability to work in a professional foodservice environment is accentuated. Restaurant Capstone emphasizes exposure to traditional American restaurant operations with regard to table service and guest interaction, dining room operation, cold food, hot food and dessert production and service, and inventory and order controls and food costing. The concepts of mise en place, timelines, plate presentation, and teamwork stressed. Timing and organization skills are emphasized

COURSE DESCRIPTION:

This course will include capstone competencies for culinary arts students. Students will manage and work multiple stations, develop food specials, cost menus, take inventories, produce a menu analysis and expedite food from the kitchen to the dining room.

GRADING SYSTEM:

State the College's or departmental grading system as delineated in the Catalog. Please note the College adheres to a 10 point grading scale A = 100 – 90, B = 89- 80, C = 79 – 70, D = 69 – 60, F = 59 and below. You must have your Dean's approval if changes in the scale are made.

Grades earned in courses impact academic progression and financial aid status. Before withdrawing from a course, be sure to talk with your instructor and financial aid counselor about the implications of that course of action. Ds, Fs, Ws, WFs and Is also negatively impact academic progression and financial aid status.

The Add/Drop Period is the first 5 days of the semester for full term classes. Add/Drop periods are shorter for accelerated format courses. Please refer to the academic calendar for deadlines for add/drop (ACADEMIC CALENDAR). You must attend at least one meeting of all of your classes during that period. If you do not, you will be dropped from the course(s) and your Financial Aid will be reduced accordingly.

Part IV: Attendance

Horry-Georgetown Technical College maintains a general attendance policy requiring students to be present for a minimum of 80 percent (80%) of their classes in order to receive credit for any course. Due to the varied nature of courses taught at the college, some faculty may require up to 90 percent (90%) attendance. Pursuant to 34 Code of Federal Regulations 228.22 - Return to Title IV Funds, once a student has missed over 20% of the course or has missed two (2) consecutive weeks, the faculty is obligated to withdraw the student and a student may not be permitted to reenroll. Instructors define absentee limits for their class at the beginning of each term; please refer to the Instructor Course Information Sheet.

For online and hybrid courses, check your Instructor's Course Information Sheet for any required on-site meeting times. Please note, instructors may require tests to be taken at approved testing sites, if you use a testing center other than those provided by HGTC, the center may charge a fee for its services.
