COURSE DESCRIPTION:

This course includes an overview of special needs children and their families. Emphasis is on prevalence of disorders, treatment modalities, community resources serving exceptional children, the teacher's role in mainstreaming and early identification, and on federal legislation affecting exceptional children.

Additional Requirements:

None.

TECHNICAL REQUIREMENTS:

Access to Desire2Learn (D2L), HGTC's student portal for course materials.

WaveNet and D2L email access. Ability to download files and templates from course page on D2L; ability to use Microsoft Word; ability to download files and pictures from the Internet.

** An online format requires students to read and complete all course modules online. Therefore, students must have relatively unlimited access to a computer with an Internet connection to be successful in this course. Assignments will only be accepted for credit in MS Word.

The majority of course requirements including submitting assignments, receiving notifications and feedback will occur through the course in D2L. The student will be required to access, download, and/or print material from "My Courses" through his(her) WaveNet account.

Please be advised that technology issues or problems are not an acceptable excuse for not participating as required for attendance or failing to submit an assignment on the due date. When having technology problems find another computer to complete the required work. Computers are open to students at numerous locations on all three campuses including open computer labs and the libraries. There are computers available for use in other public locations including the public libraries. A final option would be to contact a friend or relative to borrow a computer. When technology issues are related to the system (i.e., D2L and WaveNet), and not the result of a broken computer, you should contact student online support OIT Help Desk at (843) 349-5340 or through their link on the WaveNet homepage. Although, technology issues or problems are not an acceptable excuse for not participating as required, it is a good idea to notify your professor about the problem or difficulty.

CLASSROOM ETIQUETTE:

As a matter of courtesy to other students and your professor, please turn off cell phones and other communication/entertainment devices before class begins. If you are monitoring for an emergency, please notify your professor prior to class and switch cell phone ringers to vibrate.

Netiquette: is the term commonly used to refer to conventions adopted by Internet users on the web, mailing lists, public forums, and in live chat focused on online communications etiquette. For more information regarding Netiquette expectations for distance learning courses, please visit: Online Netiquette.

STUDENT RESPONSIBILITY AND COURSE ACADEMIC MISCONDUCT:

Students must complete their own work whether online or in a traditional classroom. Under Section III - Proscribed Conduct - of the Student Code for the South Carolina Technical College System (3-2-106.1) as published in the Horry-Georgetown Technical College (HGTC) Catalog and Student Handbook, "Academic Misconduct [is] all forms of academic misconduct including, but not limited to, cheating on tests, plagiarism, collusion and falsification of information [and] will call for discipline. Alleged violations will be handled according to the procedures presented in Section IV" of the catalog. The disciplinary procedures and possible consequences for an act of academic misconduct are detailed under Sections IV and V of the HGTC Catalog and Student Handbook.

Therefore, students must complete their own work whether online or in a traditional classroom. Any student who does not complete his(her) own work, completes his(her) work through significant assistance of another person(s) or completes work for another student, whether for compensation or not, has violated the Student Code and has committed academic misconduct. The act of misconduct includes plagiarism, or the act of using or presenting another person's work as your own.

To avoid the question of plagiarism, all information and material used as reference for any paper or project must have a parenthetical citation in the text identify the source of that knowledge and also listed on the reference page as required by the Publication Manual of the American Psychological Association.

Any incident of suspected academic misconduct will be investigated, and should the evidence find that student is in violation of the student code, the incident will be formally reported to the Chief Instructional Officer or her designate.

The possible disciplinary actions, which a professor may take for a substantiated incident of misconduct, are set forth in the Horry-Georgetown Technical College Catalog and Student Handbook. The student with questions and/or concerns should consult the Student Code for the South Carolina Technical College System (3-2-106.1) published in the HGTC College Catalog and Student Handbook and/or course professor of record.

At a minimum, a student may be withdrawn from a course(s) after he or she has been absent in excess of ten percent (10%) of the total contact hours for a course. Instructors define absentee limits for their class at the beginning of each term; please refer to the Instructor Course Information Sheet.

For online and hybrid courses, check your Instructor's Course Information Sheet for any required on-site meeting times.
