COURSE PREFIX: PHI 201

COURSE TITLE: History of Philosophy

CONTACT HOURS: 3.0

CREDIT HOURS: 3.0

RATIONALE FOR THE COURSE:

A variety of bachelor degree programs include a course in philosophy. PHI 201 is a survey of the history of philosophy, in which students become familiar with the vocabulary, semantics, and analytical nature of philosophy, while studying the views of key philosophers in history on such topics as social and political philosophy, religion, ethics, and art. The History of Philosophy is a historical survey of philosophy by topic, designed to satisfy college-level general education requirements as well as to establish an adequate foundation for more advanced philosophical studies.

COURSE DESCRIPTION:

This course is a survey of the history of philosophical thinking.

Enter the semester, course prefix, number and section when prompted and you will be linked to the correct textbook.

ADDITIONAL REQUIREMENTS:

As the focus of this course is right conduct, students are to study and follow the College's Guidelines for Classroom Decorum. The guidelines serve as the College's code of conduct and involve principles of respect and responsibility appropriate for learning in a college setting.

TECHNICAL REQUIREMENTS:

Access to Desire2Learn (D2L), HGTC's student portal for course materials.
WaveNet and D2L email access.

STUDENT IDENTIFICATION VERIFICATION

Students enrolled in online courses will be required to participate in a minimum of one (1) proctored assignment and/or one (1) virtual event to support student identification verification. Please refer to your Instructor Information Sheet for information regarding this requirement.

CLASSROOM ETIQUETTE:

- Show respect for others. (give complete attention and listen while others are talking, avoid arguing with instructor and classmates, avoid confrontation with others during classroom discussions, respect the opinions of others, keep conversations and questions focused on relevant course issues, avoid threatening behavior toward students and professors, use appropriate language, turn off electronic devices such as cell phones and pagers while in class)
- Engage in classroom activities. (avoid sleeping, actively participate, avoid doing personal work or other class assignments, exhibit positive attitude and interest in the class, use personal computers for note-taking only.)
- Exhibit respect for college property. (use equipment with care, avoid eating and drinking in classrooms where prohibited, keep desk areas neat and clean, be in classroom at the start of class and stay until class is over.)
- Take ownership and responsibility for one's learning. (complete assignments, be prepared to participate in learning, put forth effort to learn, ask questions, take responsibility for one's own actions, maintain scholastic honesty.)
- Show respect for authority. (exhibit cooperation with the professor, avoid comments that show disrespect for the professor and their knowledge, select appropriate times to inquire about academic performance which may be outside the classroom, complete assignments on time and as directed by the professor, address professors as "professor" or Mr. or Mrs. and not by first name or last name.)

As a matter of courtesy to other students and your professor, please turn off cell phones and other communication/entertainment devices before class begins. If you are monitoring for an emergency, please notify your professor prior to class and switch cell phone ringers to vibrate.

Student Code of Conduct Summary for Faculty

Classroom conduct: It is the responsibility of faculty to clearly communicate classroom expectations early in the semester. If, after that communication, students are unwilling to comply with expectations and have been notified of the unacceptability of such conduct, faculty should:

- First offense of disruptive behavior-Dismiss student from class “for a period” until discussion concerning acceptable conduct and next steps can occur between faculty and student. Student should not be readmitted to class until such discussion occurs.
- Second offense of disruptive behavior-Dismiss student from class (or request Public Safety assistance for removal) for written referral to Chief Student Services Officer (Ms. Melissa Batten) for disciplinary follow up.

Academic Misconduct: Cheating, plagiarism, collusion, et al.

- Professor must meet with student to discuss allegation and evidence upon which it is based. The student must be given the opportunity to refute the allegation.
- If academic misconduct is substantiated to the Professor’s satisfaction, the Professor notifies the student of the sanction to be imposed, consisting of one of the following:
 - Assign a grade of zero to the test, assignment, etc. involved in the academic misconduct.
 - Assign a failing grade for the course (with consultation on student academic options including the appeal process)
 - Require the student to withdraw from the course

Within five (5) working days of the meeting with the student, the Professor must provide a written explanation of the incident and any sanction imposed to the Chief Instructional Office. Please also notify the CSSO, as the CSSO serves as the CIO designee for appeal processing.

Online/Hybrid courses:

NETIQUETTE is the term commonly used to refer to conventions adopted by Internet users on the web, mailing lists, public forums, and in live chat focused on online communications etiquette. For more information regarding Netiquette expectations for distance learning courses, please visit: Online Netiquette.

Part II: Student Learning Outcomes

COURSE LEARNING OUTCOMES and ASSESSMENTS*:

1. Employ the basic vocabulary of philosophy and recognize philosophical questions.
2. State the views of key figures in the history of philosophy, and demonstrate an understanding of them.
3. Describe and explain concepts related to the nature of knowledge (what we can know and how we know it), the nature of reality (what exists or is real and on what basis), and the nature of social and political values (what values are and how they are justified).
4. Identify philosophical problems and recognize them as relating to what we know, what is real, and what is of value.

5. Critically examine and evaluate claims and arguments made by key figures in the history of philosophy, and in the process, begin to develop one's own views on what constitutes knowledge and reality, and what is of value in the world.

6. Understand what constitutes evidence or justification for a claim or argument.

*Students – please refer to the Instructor's Course Information sheet for specific information on assessments and due dates.

Part III: Grading and Assessment

EVALUATION OF REQUIRED COURSE MEASURES/ARTIFACTS*

Students' performance will be assessed and the weight associated with the various measures/artifacts are listed below.

Exams (2 to 5 Exams including Final Exam if applicable)	40%-100%
Quizzes/Assignments/ Discussions	10%-25%
Papers/Projects/Portfolios	10%-25%
Class participation	0%-10%

Total (must add up to 100%)

*Students, for the specific number and type of evaluations, please refer to the Instructor's Course Information Sheet.

GRADING SYSTEM:

Please note the College adheres to a 10 point grading scale A = 100 – 90, B = 89- 80, C = 79 – 70, D = 69 – 60, F = 59 and below. You must have your Dean's approval if changes in the scale are made.

Grades earned in courses impact academic progression and financial aid status. Before withdrawing from a course, be sure to talk with your instructor and financial aid counselor about the implications of that course of action. Ds, Fs, Ws, WFs and Is also negatively impact academic progression and financial aid status.

The Add/Drop Period is the first 5 days of the semester for full term classes. Add/Drop periods are shorter for accelerated format courses. Please refer to the academic calendar for deadlines for add/drop (ACADEMIC CALENDAR). You must attend at least one meeting of all of your classes during that period. If you do not, you will be dropped from the course(s) and your Financial Aid will be reduced accordingly.

Part IV: Attendance

Horry-Georgetown Technical College maintains a general attendance policy requiring students to be present for a minimum of 80 percent (80%) of their classes in order to receive credit for any course. Due to the varied nature of courses taught at the college, some faculty may require up to 90 percent (90%) attendance. Pursuant to 34 Code of Federal Regulations 228.22 - Return to Title IV Funds, once a student has missed over 20% of the course or has missed two (2) consecutive weeks, the faculty is obligated to withdraw the student and a student may not be permitted to reenroll. Instructors define absentee limits for their class at the beginning of each term; please refer to the Instructor Course Information Sheet.

For online and hybrid courses, check your Instructor's Course Information Sheet for any required on-site meeting times. Please note, instructors may require tests to be taken at approved testing sites, if you use a testing center other than those provided by HGTC, the center may charge a fee for its services.

Part V: Student Resources

The Student Success and Tutoring Center (SSTC)

The SSTC offers to all students the following free resources:

- 1. Academic coaches for most subject areas, Writing Center Support, and college success skills.
- 2. On-line student success and academic support resources.

Visit the SSTC website: Student Success & Tutoring Center and visit the student services tab in your WaveNet account to schedule appointments using TutorTrac. For more information, call: SSTC Conway, 349-7872; SSTC Grand Strand, 477-2113; and SSTC Georgetown, 520-1455 or go to the Online Resource Center to access on-demand resources any time.

Student Information Center: WaveNet Central (WNC)

WNC offers to all students the following free resources:

1. Getting around HGTC: General information and guidance for enrollment!
2. Use the Online Resource Center \(ORC\) for COMPASS support, technology education, and online tools.
3. Drop-in technology support or scheduled training in the Center or in class.
4. In-person workshops, online tutorials and more services are available.

Visit the WNC website: Wavenet Central. Live Chat and Center locations are posted on the website. Or please call one of the following locations: WNC Conway, 349-5182; WNC Grand Strand, 477-2076; and WNC Georgetown, 520-1473.

Student Testing:

Testing in an online/hybrid course may be accomplished in a variety of ways:

- Test administered within D2L
- Test administered in writing on paper
- Test administered through Publisher Platforms

Further more tests may have time limits and/or require a proctor.

Proctoring can be accomplished either face-to-face at an approved site or online through RPNOW, our online proctoring service. To find out more about proctoring services, please visit the Online Testing section of the HGTC's Testing Center webpage.

The Instructor Information Sheet will have more details on test requirements for your course.

Disability Services:

HGTC is committed to providing an accessible environment for students with disabilities. Inquiries may be directed to Beth Havens, Director of Student Development on the Conway Campus Jaime Davis, Counselor/Advisor on the Georgetown Campus or Kristin Griffin, Counselor on the Grand Strand Campus. These individuals will review documentation of the student's disability and, in a confidential setting with the student, develop an educational accommodation plan.

Note: It is the student's responsibility to self-identify as needing accommodations and to provide acceptable documentation. After a student has self-identified and submitted documentation of a disability, accommodations may be determined, accepted, and provided.

Statement of Equal Opportunity/Non-Discrimination Statement

Horry-Georgetown Technical College prohibits discrimination and harassment, including sexual harassment and abuse, on the basis of race, color, sex, national or ethnic origin, age, religion, disability, marital or family status, veteran status, political ideas, sexual orientation, gender identity, or pregnancy, childbirth, or related medical conditions, including, but not limited to, lactation in educational programs and/or activities.

Inquiries regarding the non-discrimination policies: Students and prospective student inquiries concerning Section 504, Title II, and Title IX and their application to the College or any student decision may be directed to the Vice President for Student Affairs, Dr. Melissa Batten, VP Student Affairs, Title IX Coordinator, Building 1100, Room 107A, Conway Campus, PO Box 261966, Conway, SC 29528-6066, 843-349-5228, Melissa.Batten@hgtc.edu. Employee and applicant inquiries concerning Section 504, Title II, and Title IX and their application to the College may be directed to the Vice President for Human Resources, Jacquelyne Snyder, VP Human Resources, Section 504, Title II, and Title IX Coordinator, Building 200, Room 212A, Conway Campus, PO Box 261966, Conway, SC 29528-6066, 843-349-5212, Jacquelyne.Snyder@hgtc.edu.

Title IX Requirements

All students (as well as other persons) at Horry-Georgetown Technical College are protected by Title IX—regardless of their sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, part- or full-time status, disability, race, or national origin—in all aspects of educational programs and activities. Any student, or other member of the college community, who believes that he/she is or has been a victim of sexual harassment or sexual violence may file a report with the college’s Chief Student Services Officer, campus law enforcement, or with the college’s Title IX Coordinator, or designee.

*Faculty and Staff are required to report incidents to the Title IX Coordinators when involving students. The only HGTC employees exempt from mandatory reporting are licensed mental health professionals (only as part of their job description such as counseling services).
